Institutional Purpose

Branner Global Christian University (BGCU) is a Christian faith-based postsecondary institution whose educational purpose is to provide advanced religious-vocation education integrating Christian faith, ethical leadership, scholarship, research, service, and professional practice in fields connected to Christian vocation and ministry-related service.

Mission

BGCU seeks to form academically prepared, ethically responsible Christian leaders and scholars through graduate education, research, applied learning, mentoring, and service. Programs connect a Christian worldview with education, administration and leadership, theology, and educational technology and innovation.

Educational Scope

- Graduate-level Christian education and educational sciences.
- Christian administration and leadership studies.
- Christian theology and ministry-related scholarship.
- Christian educational technology and innovation.
- Supervised research, thesis/dissertation development, academic mentoring, and faith-informed service.

Consumer Commitment

The University is committed to accurate advertising, transparent tuition and fee disclosures, fair admissions review, published refund rules, clear transfer-credit disclosures, student complaint and appeal procedures, and truthful statements concerning licensure, accreditation, professional eligibility, and employment outcomes.
